MONMOUTH COLLEGE.

HISTORICAL.

Monmouth College was opened September 3, 1856, in charge of the Rev. James Brown. It was begun as an "Academy or High School to be established in Monmouth under the care of the Monmouth Presbytery." January 1, 1857, it was taken under the care of the Synod of Illinois, and a "full faculty" was elected with the Rev. David A. Wallace as its president. Dr. Wallace served the College faithfully and efficiently for more than twenty-one years. During his administration the present main building was erected, the campus was laid out, the endowment fund was begun, and the College was made one of the permanent institutions of the church and of the city. Dr. Wallace resigned January 1, 1878, and the Vice President, Professor J. C. Hutchison, administered the affairs of the College during the remainder of the year.

In June, 1878, the Rev. J. B. McMichael, D. D., was elected President, and entered upon the duties of the office the following September. For nineteen years he devoted his energies to the building up of the institution he loved, and to the work of the College. During his administration a president's residence, a janitors's house and the commodious Auditorium were built. Dr. McMichael resigned in June, 1897.

The following year the affairs of the College were conducted by the Administrative Committee, consisting of the Vice President Prof. J. H. McMillan, Prof. Russell Graham, Prof. J. N. Swan and Prof. S. S. Maxwell.

The Rev. S. R. Lyons, D. D., was elected president in February, 1898, and inaugurated in June of the same year.

The growth of the institution has been gradual, but constant. From an "Academy or High School" it has grown to a College in the best modern sense of the word. It has grown in its equipment of workers, it has grown in its material equipment for work. Monmouth College is prepared to give the young man or woman who enters her portals, the training of the body, the intellect and the soul which shall prepare for the best service in life.

A college is known by its fruits—its alumni. Monmouth College is justified of her children. Ten hundred and sixty-two have been graduated from her halls. They are scattered over the face of the earth, and are occupying positions of usefulness and honor.

Of the 651 young men, at least 309 have entered the ministry. The roll shows that 136 are teachers. Among these are found college presidents; professors of universities, theological seminaries, colleges, academies and high schools; and superintendents of city schools, of counties and states.

This does not tell the whole story. Thousands more who have not graduated have received from it a good education, and are most efficient men and women in the communities in which they live.

CONTROL.

Monmouth College is under the control of certain bodies connected with the United Presbyterian Church of North America.

The College was chartered on February 16, 1857, under the control of the Synod of Illinois of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America. On February 18, 1859, the charter was amended by substituting the word "United" for the words "Associate Reformed" in the original charter. On March 12, 1869, the charter was again amended so that the Synod of Illinois was given power to associate other bodies with itself in the maintenance and control of the College. The Synods of Iowa and Kansas were thus associated at this time.

Various changes have been made in the board of control from time to time.

The College is at present under the control of the Synods of Illinois and Nebraska, the Second Synod, the Presbyteries of Keokuk, Cedar Rapids and LeClaire, and the Alumni Association of the College.

THE LAW ENDOWMENT.

In the fall of 1898, the late Mr. James Law and his sister, Ellen C. Law, of Shushan, N. Y., through Miss Ina Law Robertson, of Chicago, offered the College the sum of $50,000 on condition that the friends of the College raise a like amount by Commencement 1899. The College succeeded in fulfilling the conditions, thus increasing her endowment during the year 1899 by the sum of $100,000.

The gift of Mr. Law and his sister enables the College to add two teachers to its already large faculty.

LOCATION.

Monmouth, Illinois, is a typical College town. It is a clean, thrifty city of 10,000 inhabitants, situated on the main line of the great "Burlington" system, 180 miles west of Chicago, and 26 miles from the Mississippi by this road. It is the division headquarters of the Iowa Central railroad, and the St. Louis division of the Burlington also passes through Monmouth. The Santa Fe also runs its trains into Monmouth.

The "Maple City," as Monmouth is styled, has all the modern improvements and conveniences of larger cities, such as paved streets, electric lights, water works, etc. It is a city of churches, and the moral influences surrounding the students render them as free from temptation to evil habits as they could well be anywhere outside the influence of a Christian home.

BUILDINGS.

The College buildings are situated in a beautiful campus of ten acres, covered with various kinds of forest trees. All the buildings are heated with steam and lighted with gas. There are four buildings on the campus at the present time—the main building, the auditorium, the president's house and a house for the janitor. The auditorium contains the main audience room, seating 800 persons, an assembly hall seating 400, music room, Christian Union rooms, kitchen and bath rooms. The main building contains the recitation rooms, laboratories, society halls, etc. A gymnasium building 40x80 feet on its main floor is now being built, and will be ready for the use of the students at the opening of College in September.

LABORATORIES.

In those things so essential to the work of the modern college—the library and the laboratory—Monmouth College is well equipped.

The Biological Laboratories are located on the third floor of the main building. They consist of a very large general laboratory and lecture room, a large Histological Laboratory, a private laboratory and office, and stock room.

The Chemical and Physical Laboratories are located on the first floor and the basement of the main building. They include a lecture room, a chemical laboratory, a physical laboratory, a stock room and private laboratory, a dark room for photographic work, and a work shop.

LIBRARIES.

Few institutions afford library privileges superior to those of Monmouth College. Through the liberality of Mr. W. P. Pressly, Esq., the Warren County Library was established in 1870. At the present time it contains nearly 20,000 volumes and has an endowment of about $20,000. This is as carefully selected a library as can be found anywhere in the west. Professor Rogers, who was for so many years Professor of Mathematics in the College, and who has been the Secretary of the Library Association since its foundation, devotes much time to the carcful selection of books to be purchased, and renders valuable assistance to the students in finding works helpful in any investigation they may be pursuing. Connected with the library is a large and pleasant free reading room, supplied with all the leading papers, magazines and reviews, both English and American.

Each of the departments of the College is acquiring a library of books pertaining to the sub jects of that department. These volumes are accessible to the student in the rooms where his work in the subject is done, and are therefore used very largely. They have been indexed by the Dewey system, and a complete card catalogue has been made during the present year. Each of the literary societies has a library of its own. All of these, in connection with the College library, place more than 26,000 volumes at the disposal of the student. The advantage of such library privileges during a college course is almost inestimable.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The College owns an ideal Athletic Park about three squares from the campus. This athletic field, with the new gymnasium now being erected, will give the College ample facilities for both indoor and outdoor athletics.

Athletics are not given that prominence which would make them interfere with mental work, but are used to give recreation and vigor of body and mind.

COLLEGE PAPER.

The Oracle is a semi-monthly paper published by an association of students. Subscription price 75 cents per year.

PRIZES AND CONTESTS.

1. LIBRARY TICKETS.—Through the liberality of the following, four free tickets to the Warren County Library are awarded students for excellence in work:

Dr. David A. Wallace, two tickets.

The Class of 1895, one ticket.

Dr. D. M. Ure, of Allegheny, Pa., one ticket.

One ticket is awarded to the student in Groups I–IV who has the highest grade among those who have between 250 and 350 weeks of credit; one to the student in Groups V–VIII who has the highest grade among those who have between 250 and 350 weeks of credit; one to the student in Groups I–IV who has the highest grade among those who have between 150 and 250 weeks of credit; and one to the student in Groups V–VIII who has the highest grade among those having between 150 and 250 weeks of credit.

These tickets are awarded upon the credits as they stand at the close of the winter term each year.

2. TRACY PRIZES.—Mr. J. P. Tracy, of Chicago, a former student and a friend of the College, has generously founded "An Annual Competitive Rendition of the Holy Scriptures," and offered prizes, one of fifteen dollars and the other of ten dollars, to the competitors ranking first and second in rendering portions of Scripture of not more than one thousand words each. This year the prize money was divided into four parts, $10.00, $7.50, $5.00, and $2.50.

It is the desire of the giver of these prizes to encourage the students in learning to read the Bible in such a manner as to make its meaning clear to the casual hearer. This contest is open to students of College standing who are members of the Christian Union.

The third contest was held February 1, 1900. The successful contestants were Ralph Jamieson, first; W. J. Matthews, second; Oscar R. Main, third, and Edna Foster, fourth.

3. Society Prize Contests.—The Eccritean Society has three annual contests among its own members, viz: A Declamation contest, an Essay contest, and an Oration contest called the McKelvey Oration contest. Prizes $10.00 and $5.00 are awarded in each contest.

The Philadelphian Society has two annual contests among its members, viz: A Declamation contest, prizes $5.00 and $3.00; and an Oration contest, called the Elliott-Cleland contest, prizes $10 00 and $5.00.

The Aletheorian and Amateur des Belles Lettres Societies have similar contests.

The Philo-Eccritean contest occurs on Commencement evening. This contest embraces ten points: Declamation, 1; essay, 2; Oration, 3; Debate, 4. The interest centering in the contest makes it the literary event of the year.

4. Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest. —Monmouth College is a member of the Inter-Collegiate Oratorical Association. Each year a preliminary contest is held to select an orator, who represents the College in the Illinois State Contest. The winner of this state contest represents the state in the inter-state contest, to which representatives are sent from ten states. Monmouth College stands among the very first in the honors gained in these contests, having a record which is surpassed by only two other institutions.

5. MONMOUTH-DRAKE CONTEST IN DEBATE. —During the year 1897–98 the Drake University of Des Moines, Iowa, and Monmouth College, organized an annual contest in debate.

The third of these contests was held in Des Moines, Iowa, and was won by Monmouth. Messrs Rolland Hamilton, David S. Sharpe and David Turnbull were the Monmouth contestants.

COLLEGE AND STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS.

CHRISTIAN UNION.

One of the most potent factors for good in the College is the organization of faculty and students called the Christian Union. A prayer meeting is held on each Monday evening at 7 o'clock, and a general meeting is held once a month on Sabbath evening. Each year the Christian Union organizes a number of classes for special Bible study.

The members of the various committees of the Union do much to make it pleasant for new students coming to College. They meet the trains at the opening of the year, help students secure lodging and boarding, introduce them to the other students, and in many other ways brighten the path of the new student who is among strangers.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are four literary societies connected with the College; the Eccritean and Philadelphian for gentlemen, and the Aletheorian and Amateur des Belles Lettres for ladies. Each society has a well furnished hall and a library. These societies are well conducted and are attended by almost every student. The work done in the societies is rightly regarded as a very important part of the College training. Membership in any of these societies is gained by the election of the society. The initiation fee for the gentlemen's societies is $5.00, and for the ladies', $3.00. The ladies' societies meet at 4 p. m. on Friday of each week, and the gentlemen's societies on Friday evenings. A number of contests between the members of individual societies, and also a contest between the gentlemen's societies are held each year.

LECTURE ASSOCIATION.

The two gentlemen's societies unite in maintaining each year a course of popular lectures and concerts. The best talent the country affords is used in these entertainments, and the popular price of season tickets fills the auditorium for each of these performances. These courses furnish the students an opportunity of hearing representative American and English platform orators at a trifling outlay.

ORATORICAL ASSOCIATION.

This organization has for its primary object the planning for the preliminary and inter-collegiate contests in oratory. Other like matters are often referred to them.

THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Is an organization of students for the furtherance of athletic work in the College. This association elects the managers, captains and other officers in the teams. They are the responsible head of the athletic work of the College so far as the students are concerned.

ADMISSION.

1. Ladies and gentlemen are admitted to all privileges of the College on the same footing.

2. Applicants for admission to Monmouth College will report to the President in his office for enrollment. On enrolling each applicant will receive an enrollment card giving directions whom to see for credits in the various departments.

3. The classffication of all students applying for admission to Monmouth College will be by examination, not by certificate, except as provided for in the following:

(a) Students may be admitted to the College on the certificate of honorable dismissal from colleges of like standing with this. A certified statement of the work done in such college must be presented before credits will be given.

(b) Candidates on furnishing proper certificates of work done (blanks for said certificates being supplied by the College) shall be admitted from any one of the following schools to College standing without examination, in so far as these completed studies correspond with the studies of the Preparatory Department:

The Albany Collegiate Institute, Albany, Ore.
Marissa Academy, Marissa, Illinois.
Collegiate Institute, Geneseo, Illinois.
Waitsburg Academy, Waitsburg, Washington.
Pawnee Academy, Pawnee, Nebraska.
Washington Academy, Washington, Iowa.

(c) All High Schools on the accredited list of the State Universities of their respective states will be accorded the same privileges at Monmouth College, provided that the student is able to do the work required in the College. If not, so much of the preparatory work shall still be required as, in the judgment of the Faculty, shall be necessary to enable him successfully to proseeute his course. Blanks will be furnished by the President of this College to graduates of such High Schools on which a certified record of work done must be furnished before credits will be given.

4. Students coming from well established Academies and High Schools, whose courses correspond with that of this school, are requested to bring official certificates, not diplomas, from such schools. These certificates shall state what subjects have been studied, with the time devoted to each, the author of the text books used and the grade obtained. Blank forms of such certificates will be furnished on application to the President of this College. These certificates will be used by each professor holding entrance examinations, in determining the extent of examinations needful in his department. Applicants desiring to avail themselves of the benefit of these certificates must have them with them when they present themselves for admission.

5. Credit will not be given for work done in preparatory schools on college subjects except by examination. Work done in schools below the High Schools will not be considered equivalent to the work of the Preparatory Department.

6. Pupils on first entering College are assigned work by the Faculty. The assignment is based on the fitness ot the pupil as shown by the entrance credits. It is understood that all entrance credits are conditioned by the student's ability to do the succeeding work of the course.

7. A student may be admitted to College standing if he has not more than thirty-five weeks back work.

8. College students who have any preparatory work back will be starred in the catalogue. The record in the catalogue shows the number of credits held by the student at the close of the winter term of each year.

9. A student will not permitted to take college work in any department, if he has preparatory work back in that department, until he shall have made satisfactory arrangements with the professor for the bringing up of the back work.

10. No student of known immoral character and none whose influence is likely to be injurious to good order will be admitted. Applicants for admission, unknown to any member of the Faculty, shall bring certificates of good moral character.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

REGULATIONS OF THE SENATE.

I. The Statutes of the College, Chapter ii, Section 3, provide that "No student shall be permitted to enter at a later period of the course than the commencement of the first session of the Senior year." The spirit of this law, in the judgment of the Faculty, requires at least one full year's attendance of a student on the exercises of the College in order to graduation. Under no circumstances will this rule, as thus interpreted, be relaxed while the above statute remains unrepealed.

II. The Senate has adopted the following as an additional chapter to the College Statutes.

Section 1. All persons matriculating shall be regarded as students, and on payment of the required fees shall be entitled to all the privileges of the College.

Sec. 2. Connection with the College is terminated by graduation or dismissal, honorable or otherwise.

Sec. 3. The privileges of the student shall be suspended in all cases of failure to pay the required fee and attend on instruction. Provided, however, that the following privileges, namely, that of examination with his classes, active membership in the societies, representing societies and classes on public performances, and the use of the library and reading room, may be granted to students temporarily absent, for a period not exceeding one year, on written permission from the faculty, and the payment of two dollars per term.

Sec. 4. All persons enjoying any of the above privileges shall be subject to college discipline, the same as if in actual attendance.

III. College Statutes, Chapter 2, Section 5: Every person, before he is admitted to the privileges of the College, shall obtain from the Treasurer a receipt by which it shall appear that he has complied with the ordinance of the Senate regarding fees and expenses, and if any officer admit to his recitation a student who has not paid his College bills, such officer shall be held responsible for such bills.

If any student shall be admitted after the beginning of a session and before the middle of it, he shall pay the fee accruing on the whole session. If admitted at or after the middle of the session, he shall pay half thereof.

The statutes expressly forbid the students to use intoxicating drinks as a beverage, or play cards, to frequent drinking, gambling or billiard saloons, or improper places of resort of any kind. The Faculty judges places of amusement commonly called "balls" or "dances" to be improper places of resort for students.

At the meeting of the senate in June, 1874, the following was added to the statutes of the College as Section 4 of Chapter xii:

"It shall be unlawful for any student of the College hereafter to become a member of any secret college fraternity, or to connect with any chapter of any such fraternity, and also for any active member of any snch fraternity to be admitted as a student of this College.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.

1. Each student on entering the College department decides upon the group he will pursue.

2. The professor at the head of the department in which the student's major subject is found will act as his adviser. The student must consult with him, and in planning his course must first provide for his major subject.

3. A student who carries fewer than ten hours of work per week will not be regarded in full standing.

4. No student will be permitted to take more than fifteen hours per week without consent of the Faculty. Permission to carry extra work must be granted before the pupil can be enrolled for the work. The application for extra work must be made when the registration is made out by the adviser.

5. A student may not change his major subject except at the beginning of a year, and then only after having the consent first of the professors in charge of both departments, followed by the approval of the Faculty.

6. No student will be graduated who has not obtained four hundred and twenty (420) credits, and who has not finished all the work required in some one group.

7. All the students are required to attend the worship of God in the chapel daily. All who do not reside with their parents are required to attend public worship in some church on the Sabbath. The students' weekly prayer meeting is well attended. The Faculty regard it an important part of their work to labor for the moral and spiritual welfare of the student.

8. Students are requested to notify the President before changing their places of boarding.

ABSENCES.

Absence from class exercises, for any cause, necessarily involves intellectual loss that can be made up only by special work, if at all. A day's absence at the opening of a term may cripple the work of an entire term.

When the number of unexcused absences reaches five in any one department, or ten in all departments within the school year, five weeks extra work will be required to obtain a degree.

GOVERNMENT.

It is the aim of the Faculty to secure good order and diligence in study by force of moral and religious principles, rather than by direct exercise of authority. Those who persist in neglecting their studies, or in pursuing disorderly courses, or in exerting an evil influence, will not be permitted to remain in College.

ATHLETIC REGULATIONS.

1. The Athletic Park and Gymnasium are the property of the College, and are under the supervision of the Faculty.

2. The Park and Gymnasium were secured for the benefit of the College, and only members of the same are entitled to use them.

3. There shall be no matched game played on the Park or on any ground whatsoever during recitation hours, without the consent of the Faculty.

4. There shall be no subletting of the Park or Gymnasium to any outside associations, clubs or individuals, for the purpose of playing games, sharing game receipts, or for any other purpose whatsoever, excepting on the written permission of the President of the College.

5. All athletic exercises shall be under the supervision of the Faculty committee on athletics.

6. Any student who represents Monmouth college in any athletic contest or game shall be subject to the following requirements: (1) he must be an amateur; (2) he must be regularly registered for not less than 10 hours of work; in order that he shall be eligible for fall contests the registration must take place not later than the second Monday of the Fall term; for Spring contests not later than the first Monday of Spring term; (3) he must be regular in attendance upon all college exercises, and maintain passing grades.

7. The manager of a team shall not permit a member to take part in any contest or game unless he receives written permission, signed by the president or registrar, such permission must be obtained at least eight days prior to the contest or game; but this permission can be withdrawn by a vote of the faculty.

8. It shall be the duty of the chairman of athletic committee of the faculty to report to the faculty any violations of these rules.

9. No student shall act as manager of an athletic team without written permission signed by the president and registrar. The manager shall be subject to the same requirements as a member of a team.

DETAILS OF WORK.

ENROLLMENT.

All students on entering College for the year enroll, file registration cards, return receipted treasurer's bill to the Registrar. When this is done the name will be placed on the class rolls.

REGISTRATION.

Pupils who enter College for the first time will choose the course of study they will pursue, and work, based on the entrance credits given, will be assigned them by their adviser.

Those who have previously been in attendance in Monmouth College will enroll, make out their registration card under the direction of their adviser and secure the signature of each Professor with whom they take work. On filing this card with the Registrar and returning to him the Treasurer's receipt for tuition, the card for admission to class will be issued.

Winter and Spring Terms.—Registration for the Winter term is made by all in attendance during the Fall term within the days December 3–6, and for the Spring term by those in attendance during the Winter term within the days February 25–28. Registration cards must be on file with the Registrar by the close of recitations on the last day of registration. A fee of $1.00 is required of those who neglect registration at the appointed time.

EXAMINATIONS.

Each term's work is regarded as complete in itself, and credit is given for same, but the final examination, in a subject covering more than a single term may embrace the entire subject.

Students absenting themselves from the regular examinations of their classes will be charged $1.00 for private examinations in each subject. These examinations must be taken before the student is entitled to resume work in class. A receipt from the Treasurer, showing that the examination fee has been paid, must be presented before examination is given.

SPECIAL EXAMINATION.

Examinations are held for students making up back work on the last Saturday of each term.

A student who has taken D and who wishes for this or any other reason to make up a subject without recitation in class, must make application for such work through the committee on extra studies at the opening of the term during which this work is to be done.

GRADING AND HONORS.

Honors are in no sense competitive; the student is ranked upon his own merit, not upon his comparative standing.

All students pursuing a subject are ranked according to their work, as A, B, C. D or E.

A indicates work passed with honor.

B indicates work passed fairly.

C indicates simply passed.

D indicates work on which examination may be taken after review, but the credit must be secured before the work is offered again in class.

E indicates work must be taken again in class.

Each professor determines the rank of his pupils in his own way.

The average for honors at graduation is taken for the College Course.

Every student whose average rank is nearer A than B is entitled to first honor.

Every student whose average rank is not below B is entitled to second honor.

REPORTS.

Reports are sent to parents or guardians at the close of each term. The President should be notified of every case where report fails to come within ten days after the close of the term.

DEGREES.

Degree on Graduation.—Each of the nine Groups leads to the degree of B. A. The degree of B. L. is conferred on those completing the Literary Course. The completion of the prescribed course in music leads to the degree of B. M.

The course may be completed at the close of any term, but the formal graduation will occur at the Commencement in June, when all degrees are conferred.

Candidates for degrees shall at the opening of the college year in which they seek their degree, make formal application stating the degree for which they apply. Under the direction of their adviser they shall choose a subject on which to prepare a thesis. The thesis is to be on file with the adviser by the close of the Winter Term.

Advanced Degree.—The Masters' degree is open to Bachelors of this institution or of any other college of equal rank upon the following conditions:

1. Candidates may receive a Master's degree, pro merito, three years after graduation, upon passing a satisfactory examination in one major and one minor subject. These studies are to be chosen under the advice of the head of the department in which the major part of the work is done, by whom also the examinations are conducted. A thesis must also be presented by the close of the Winter Term on a theme connected with the study, embodying results of careful investigation.

2. Candidates may receive a Master's degree upon presenting satisfactory evidence of having pursued a professional course, such as a certificate of graduation from a Theological Seminary, Law School or Medical College, and by submitting a thesis on a subject connected with such a course of study, embodying results of careful investigation and advanced work. This degree may also be conferred upon those furnishing a certificate of two years' satisfactory graduate work done in an accredited University, together with a thesis as above.

Those desiring a Master's degree must make application to the President at least one year before the degree is given. A fee of $6.00 must accompanying the application for a Master's degree.

EXPENSES.

Tuition—First Term.....$12 00
Second and Third Terms, each..... 9 00
Matriculation Fee, on entering Collegiate Department..... 5 00
Incidental Expenses—
Fall Term..... 4 00
Winter and Spring Terms, each..... 3 00
Ministers' Children, Tuition, not including incidentals, half price.

The incidental fee is intended to meet the expenses of the College not included in the salaries of the Professors and Instructors.

The fee for a student taking one subject is one-half the full fee for the term.

Laboratory Fees, per term—
Chemistry.....$ 3 00
Physics..... 1 00
Physiology..... 1 00
Other Biological Subjects..... 2 00

A deposit is required of those students taking laboratory subjects. This deposit, after deducting the value of apparatus broken, is returned at the end of the term. These deposits are:

In Chemistry.....$ 2 00
In all other subjects..... 1 00

Boarding in private families, including lodging and fuel, has, during the past year, ranged from $3.00 to $4.00 per week. Many students board in clubs at a cost of less than $3.00 per week.

A low estimate for annual expenses would be $150.00.

A high estimate would be $250.00.

A conservative estimate of expenses by the term would be, for the first term of fifteen weeks, about $65.00. For the second and third terms of ten weeks each, about $45.00 per term.

A liberal estimate would be, for the first term about $105.00.

The second and third terms about $70.00 each.

The cost of clothing and traveling and the private incidental expenses of a student are not included. They will depend largely upon the habits of the student. Clothing need cost but little, if anything, more in college than out.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION.

COLLEGE COURSES.

The courses of study are so arranged that the student has the privilege of choosing any one of nine groups of studies, all of which lead to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, after four years of work. In each group some one study is made the major subject, and the professor in charge of that department is the adviser of all students who select his group. Group I, for example, requires Greek as the major subject, and the professor of Greek acts as adviser for all students who select that group. The students are expected to consult with the adviser as to the order in which their work is to be taken.

One study carried successfully through the fall term will give a credit of fifteen (15) weeks. The winter and spring terms, in like manner, give ten (10) weeks each, so that the student who carries three subjects for one year will receive a credit of one hundred and five (105) weeks. This amount is regarded as full work. Four hundred and twenty (420) weeks of work are necessary for graduation. In each group two hundred and eighty-five (285) weeks of specified work are laid down, and the student has the privilege of selecting other studies from any department which he may choose, to complete the other one hundred and thirty-five (135) weeks necessary for graduation. The selection of these should be made with the advice of the head of the department in which the student has chosen his major subject, that the electives may bear some helpful relation to his required work. Thfrty-five (35) weeks of music can be used as an elective under certain conditions, for which see the Music Courses.

The system is designed to give the student greater freedom in the choice of subjects, permitting by its flexibility more regard for the needs of individuals, and, at the same time, securing fundamental uniformity. For admission to each group an equal amount of preparatory work is necessary. Each group requires the student to follow some special line of study during at least seventy (70) weeks.

The following table outlines the required work —285 weeks—in each of the eight groups. One hundred and thirty-five weeks of electives are to be added to each group in order to make it complete. The Roman numerals in the table outline which courses are required. These courses are given in detail in the outlines of the work of the departments on the succeeding pages. The figures indicate the number of weeks required in each department:

OUTLINES OF WORK OF DEPARTMENTS.

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY AND REVELATION.

S. R. LYONS, PROFESSOR.

The aim of this department will be to give the student a thorough knowledge of things fundamental. The Bible is the written word of God. Jesus Christ is the living word of God. Christ, the revelation of God, is the heart of the Bible. The course offered for the present year will be a study of the life of Christ, as He is revealed in Old Testament type and symbol of prophecy; also the actual history of His life as it is revealed in the New Testament. The method will be by text-book and lecture combined, with much careful study of the Word itself by the student.

In Ethics, the fundamental principles of the moral life will be the subject of study. Here text book and lectures will be combined with a study of life as found in the masterpieces of literature.

In Psychology the aim will be to give the student a careful introduction to the science of mind.

The following courses are offered:

I. Bible—Type, symbol and prophecy of Christ in the Old Testament. Fall Term.

II. Bible—Life of Christ in the New Testament. Continuation of Course I. Winter Term.

III. Psychology—Prerequisite, Advanced Rhetoric. Fall Term.

IV. Ethics—Prerequisite, 200 weeks of college work. Winter Term.

DEPARTMENT OF LATIN.

JOHN H. M'MILLAN, PROFESSOR.

GRACE H. WOODBURN, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR.

For the preparatory work necessary to secure college standing in Latin, see the outline given under the topical statement of work in the Preparatory Department.

In the College Latin Course, training in syntax is not neglected, but it gives place largely to the literary part of the work which from this point grows in prominence. Word formation, enlarged vocabulary, clause relations, sentence building, etymological and rhetorical figures, structure of the paragraph, are topics which suggest the work of the course. Sight reading and translating at hearing take an increasingly prominent place. The aim will be to read as much Latin as possible. A thorough preparatory training is essential.

The following courses are offered:

I. Cicero De Oratore. This course is required of all enrolled in Groups II. and III. It is open to a limited number from other groups.

Close attention will be paid to syntax, and a careful review and classification of the principles of the language will be made. Prerequisite—Preparatory course in Latin. Fall Term.

II. Cicero—De Senectute, De Amicitia, Sight Reading; Laboratory Study; Syntax, especially of the Verb; Preparation of Papers Based on Assigned Reading.

Prerequisite — Preparatory Course in Latin. Winter Term.

III. Livy.—Topical Review of Roman History; Collateral Reading; Papers based on special reading.

Prerequisite—Course II. Spring Term.

IV. Horace.—Odes and Epodes. Comparative Study, Prosody, Mythology, Roman Literature. Particular attention is given to the literary and rhetorical features of the parts read.

Prerequisites — Courses II. and III. Fall Term.

V. Horace.—Satires and Epistles (including Ars Poeticae). Roman habits, government, private life, etc., are studied.

Prerequisites—Courses II.–IV. Winter Term.

VI. Tacitus.—Agricola Germania and selections from Dialoge De Oratore. History under the Emperors. A comparison of accounts of the Britains and Germans given by other authors with that given by Tacitus is made. Also a comparative study of Cicero De Oratore and Tacitus is made.

Prerequisites—Courses II. and III. Spring Term.

VII. Roman Comedy.—Plays from Plautus and Terence. Topical work on the social conditions illustrated and the amusements of the time.

Prerequisites—Courses I.–V. Fall Term.

VIII. Roman Life.—In addition to reading in this course Latin of various periods, instruction will be given if desired which will be helpful to those desiring to teach Latin. Special work will be assigned for investigation on which reports will be made.

Prerequisites—Courses I.–V, VII. required of pupils enrolled in Groups II. and III.

DEPARTMENT OF GREEK.

J. H. WILSON, PROFESSOR.

The aim in this department is to cultivate habits of attention, accurate observation, close reasoning and correct and vigorous expression; to give some idea of the wealth of thought here awaiting the earnest seeker, and to show something of the historical development of this people, whose language, literature and art have entered so largely into modern thought and modern progress.

The Department Library is made up of the best works on Greek life, literature and history. Valuable additions are made each year.

White's First Greek Book and the Anabasis are studied for one year in the Preparatory Department.

The following courses are offered:

I. Anabasis.—Gramatical work in Syntax, Conditional Sentences, Indirect Discourses

Prerequisite—One year of Greek. Fall Term.

II. Memorabilia of Socrates.—Home and Social Life of the Greeks.

Prerequisite—Course I. Winter Term.

III. Course 2nd continued. Spring Term.

Prerequisites.—Courses I and II.

IV. Plato's Apology.—Greek Morals and Religion.

Prerequisites—Courses I, II and III. Fall Term.

V. Homer—Prerequisites, Courses I–IV. Winter Term.

VI. Greek Drama and Greek Testament.

Prerequisites—Courses I–IV. Fall Term.

VII. Demosthenes De Corona.—Spirit Logic and Historical setting of the Oration.

Prerequisites—Courses I–IV. Winter Term.

VIII. Demosthenes De Corona.—Course VII eontinued.

Prerequisite---Course VII. Spring Term.

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS.

J. M. BROSIUS, PROFESSOR.

ALICE WINBIGLER, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR.

The department offers seven courses of College Mathematics. Two of these are required of all students. The courses in College Algebra, in Analytics and in Calculus are considered invaluable to the students of the Scientific Groups in giving them a preparation for effective work in their own lines. They are planned with this in view. They are also intended to afford to all who may desire to avail themselves of it, an opportunity to become familiar with the elements of the higher mathematics, together with the most modern methods of mathematical analysis.

The course in Astronomy, while at present mostly descriptive, is still made to illustrate some of the practical features in the study of pure mathematics.

The following courses are offered:

I. Solid Geometry—Based on Beman and Smith's Solid Geometry. Prerequisite---Preparatory Mathematics. Fall Term.

II. Plain Trigonometry--Prerequisite, Course I. Winter Term.

III. Spherical Trigonometry and College Algebra---Spherical Trigonometry will occupy one-third of the term, and will include the development and transformation of the fundamental equations, together with their application to the solution of practical problems. College Algebra will occupy the remainder of the term and will deal with special topics in Higher Algebra, i. e.: Infinite Series, Imaginaries, Inequalities, Partial Fractions, Theory of Equations, Theory of Numbers, etc.

Prerequisites---Courses I.–II. Fall Term.

IV. Analytical Geometry---Geometry of the Points, of the Line, of the Conic Section. Theory of Loci. Discussion of the General Equation of the second degree. Based on Bailey and Wood's Analytic Geometry.

Prerequsites---Courses I.–III. Winter Term.

V. Analytical Geometry---Continuation of Course IV. Spring Term.

VI. Calculus---Includes the elements of both the Differential and the Integral Calculus. Based on Osborne's Differential and Integral Calculus.

Prerequisites---Courses I.–IV. Fall Term.

VII. Astronomy---Study of fundamental facts and principles; observational work; location and study of the constellations; short articles upon assigned topics. Based on Young's General Astronomy.

Prerequisites---Courses I. II. Spring Term.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH.

JENNIE LOGUE CAMPBELL AND L. E. ROBINSON, PROFESSORS.

I. English Composition.—The principles of effective writing in prose.

Prerequisite—Preparatory work in English. Fall Term.

II. History of English Literature from earliest times to 1660.

Prerequisites—Course I. Winter Term.

III. History of English Literature from 1660 to the present.

Prerequisite—Course II. Spring Term.

In connection with the last two courses will be careful study of selections from the authors belonging to each period.

IV. Advanced Rhetoric.—Study of Structure and Style—literary analysis.

Prerequisite—Courses I.-III. Fall Term.

V. History of the English Language. —The Knight's Tale of Chaucer. Shakespeare's Julius Cæsar, and two books of Milton's Paradise Lost will be read with reference to the growth and development of the language, as well as to literary study.

Prereqisite—Courses I.–III. Fall Term.

VI. Shakespeare.—Critical study of several plays, prefaced by lectures on the origin and progress of the English drama.

Prerequisites—Courses I.–III. Winter Term.

VII. Old English.—Anglo-Saxon Grammar with selections from literature.

Prerequisite—Courses I.-III. Winter Term.

VIII. American Literature.---Lectures on History and Development.

Prerequisite—Courses I.-III. Winter Term.

IX. Old English.—Selections from early Saxon literature.

Prerequisite---Courses I.-III., VII. Spring Term.

X. American Literature.---Critical study of Authors.

Prerequisite---Courses I.-III. Spring Term.

XI. Nineteenth Century Writers. ---Critical study of the leading poets and essayists. Given in alternate years 1900-1901; 1902-1903.

Prerequisite---Courses I.-III. Spring Term.

XII. The Novel.---History and Characteristics. Given in alternate years 1901-1902; 1903-1904.

Prerequisite---Courses I.-III. Spring Term.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY.

RUSSELL GRAHAM, PROFESSOR.

I. Constitutional Law.—Origin and Nature of Government. Nature and Development of Law. A comparative study of the more striking features of the Constitution and government of Greece and Rome, France, Germany, Switzerland and England. Text-book Woodrow Wilson's, The State.

Prerequisite — Course I, Group IX. Fall Term.

II. Constitutional Law.—A close Study of the Constitution of the United States, together with its growth and development by Legislation to the present time.

Prerequisite—Course I. Winter Term.

III. International Law.—The nature, sources, sanctions and growth of International Law.

Prerequisites — Courses I. and II. Spring Term.

IV. Elements of Political Economy.—The aim in this course is to make the student familiar with the leading facts and principles of Economics. Text-book, Francis Walker's Political Economy. Advanced Course.

Prerequisite — 200 weeks of College work. Fall Term.

V. Elements of Sociology.—In this course the attempt is made to prepare the student for reading intelligently Sociological literature and lay the foundation for more advanced work.

Prerequisites—Courses IV. Winter Term.

VI. Economics and Social Problems. — A practical application of Economics and Sociological principles to present problems and conditions.

Prerequisite — Course IV. and V. Spring Term.

VII. Evidences of Christianity.—McIlvaine's Evidences as a basis. Classroom discussions, presentation of special topics by students and lectures by professor.

Prerequisite—250 weeks of College work. Winter Term.

VIII. Argumentation.---Conviction and persuasion. Debates by students and lectures by professor.

Prerequisite---250 weeks of College work. Spring Term.

IX. Logic.---Jevon's text-book as a basis. Special attention given to detection of fallacies by application of principles of the science.

Prerequisite --- Course III. Department of Philosophy. Spring Term.

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY.

MISS FLORABEL PATTERSON, PROFESSOR.

The courses offered by this Department have been so arranged as to meet the needs not only of advanced work in history, but also of such other lines of study as may require some preliminary training in history. The following courses are offered:

I. Mediaeval History.---This course is an introductory one. It includes a brief review of Græco-Roman civilization during the period of its decadence, of Christianity as an historic factor, and of the characteristics of the Teutonic peoples; a survey of the folk migrations; a study of the organization of society on the basis of Feudalism; the theocratic organization of society on the basis of Papacy; the conflict of the two, and the beginnings of National organization.

Prerequisite---Preparatory work in history. Fall Term.

II. The Reformation and the Wars of Religion.---From Luther to the Peace of Westphalia.

Prerequisite---Course I. Winter Term.

III. Era of Absolutism and the Dynastic Wars.---From the Peace of Westphalia to the French Revolution.

Prerequisite---Courses I., II. Spring Term.

IV. Era of Political Revolutions and Reconstruction of European States.---From 1789 to the Congress of Berlin.

Prerequisite---Courses I.-III. Fall Term.

V. Colonial Period of United States History.---From the colonization of Virginia and Massachusetts to the adoption of the Federal Constitution.

Prerequisites---Courses I.-III. Winter Term.

VI. Constitutional Period of United States History.---From 1789 through the Period of Reconstruction.

Prerequisite---Course V. and Course II. of Group VIII.

DEPARTMENT OF ELOCUTION AND ORATORY.

MISS CLEMENTINE CALVIN, PROFESSOR.

The aim of the instruction in this department is to develop natural and effective speakers; to teach self-control and self-expression before an audience, whether in reading or extempore speech; to correct mannerism, and at the same time to develop the individuality of the student; in short, to give, as far as possible, such training in vocal and physical expression as will best fit the pupil for practical life, whether it be in the social, the business or the professional world.

Special instruction is given to all students taking part in public performances in connection with the college. This includes preparation for contests in oration, declamation, essay, debate and Bible rendition; training for the public meetings of the literary societies, and for the special exercises of Commencement week.

The following courses are offered:

Course I. Spring Term---Free gymnastics. Breath control and tone production. Vocal culture. Articulation, Enunciation. Orthoepy. Study of choice selections from English literature. Individual recitations and criticism.

Prerequisite---Preparatory work completed.

Course II. Winter Term---Study of standard orations. Extempore speeches. Original debates. Bible renditions. Declamations. Individual criticism. Physical culture and gesture.

Prerequisite---Course I.

Course III. Spring Term---This course is intended to give special training to those wishing to fit themselves for platform work. Extempore speeches, pleas, declamations, Shakespeare renditions and original work are required. Individual direction and criticism are offered, and special attention is given to bodily responsiveness or gesture.

Prerequisite---Course II.

DEPARTMENT OF MODERN LANGUAGES.

TORILD ARNOLDSON, INSTRUCTOR.

German.

During the past college year, Goethe's Faust was studied with advanced students in the Fall term, and instruction has been given to beginning students throughout the year. Thomas's Practical Grammar and Guerber's Marchen und Erzahlungen were used as text books in the Fall term and part of the Winter term, followed by translating and paraphrasing of Zschokke's Der Zerbrochene Krug, and in the Spring term, Baumbach's Waldnovellen and Carmen Sylva's Aus Meinem Konigreich.

The following courses are offered for the coming year to all students of College standing:

I. Grammar and composition, translation at sight and hearing, colloquial exercises and vocabulary drill. Fall Term.

II. Continuation of Course I. Introduction of more advanced reading matter. Winter Term.

III. Continuation of Course II. Spring Term.

IV. Modern Prose.* Advanced composition. Fall Term.

V. German Classics.* Winter Term.

VI. German Classics.* Spring Term.

French.

The study of French was introduced in the Winter term of the past year. The work covered the essentials of Grammar contained in Beziat de Bordes' text book, followed in the Spring term, by reading of selections from Claretie, Daudet, Dumas, Maistre and Maupassant.

The following courses are offered for the coming year to all students of College standing:

I. Grammar and composition, pronunciation drill, daily colloquial exercises, elementary reading. Fall Term.

II. Continuation of Course I. Winter Term.

III. Modern Prose.* Advanced composition. Spring Term.

IV. French Drama.* Fall Term.

V. Victor Hugo.* Winter Term.

Spanish.

VI. The course is intended for those that have had some training in the study of languages. It aims to give the pupil a number of practical hints for self-instruction in the language. The course embraces pronunciation, a short synopsis of the grammar and sight reading, constant reference being made to the derivation of words. Before registering for the subject, see instructor. Spring Term.

* In these courses the reading matter will be varied from year to year, in order to afford an opportunity of electing more French or German.

DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY.

SAMUEL S. MAXWELL, PROFESSOR.

SAMUEL A. MUNFORD, ASS'T IN THE LABORATORY.

The work in the Biological Department is intended to contribute to the general culture and scientific training of the student. The subjects are especially adapted to this end, bringing him face to face with questions of the deepest philosophical interest. At the same time the practical value is not to be overlooked. For medicine, such training is looked upon as indispensable, while students of Sociology and kindred subjects find similar work in Biology an important prerequisite.

The Laboratories are supplied with compound microscopes, dissecting microscopes, water baths and other appliances for the study of animal and vegetable tissues. Forty microscopes of convenient laboratory form, one large and very complete Leitz' and one Zeiss' Paul Mayer dissecting microscope form part of the outfit.

A kymograph and other physiological apparatus, a set of mounted skeletons, and a collection of brain preparations have recently been added.

The following courses are offered:

I. Invertebrate Zoology.---An introduction to the study of animal life. Marshall and Hurst's Practical Zoology is used as a laboratory guide.

Open to all College students. Fall Term.

II. Comparative Anatomy of Vertebrates---Lectures on the gross anatomy and histology of vertebrates, and laboratory work on the vertebrate types in Marshall and Hurst.

Prerequisite---Course I. Winter Term.

III. Embryology---The embryology of the chick and frog will be studied in the laboratory. The work will cover substantially the same ground as Foster and Balfour's Elements of Embryology.

Prerequisite---Course II. Spring Term.

IV. Animal Physiology---Martin's Human Body Advanced Course will be made the basis of this term's work. This will be supplemented by lectures and laboratory.

Prerequisites---Courses I. and II Elementary Physics and Elementary Chemistry. Fall Term.

V. Neurology---A comparative study of the structure and growth of the central nervous system and an introduction to brain physiology.

Prerequisite---Course II. Winter Term.

VI. The Special Senses---An introduction to the anatomy of the organs of special sense and the physiology of sensation. In the laboratory special attention will be given to the physiology of vision.

Prerequisite---Course V. Spring Term.

VII. Cryptogamic Botany---Prerequisite, Elementary Botany. Winter Term.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL SCIENCE.

J. N. SWAN, PROFESSOR.

GEORGE C. COWDEN, ASS'T IN LABORATORY.

The Department of Physical Science includes the subjects of Chemistry and Physics.

The subject of Chemistry is developed on the logical basis of the Periodic System. In the laboratory the student from the first becomes familiar with chemicals, their nomenclature and properties. In the laboratory work in Physics, written directions are used, and as many quantitative experiments as possible are given in order to train the student in accuracy of hand, eye and ear.

In all courses the work consists of lectures, recitations and laboratory work. Generally in courses I, II, V–VII recitations are held three days, and laboratory work on two days of each week, and in courses III and IV, lectures two days and laboratory work three days each week, but this proportion is subject to variation.

Each year additions are made to the stock of apparatus available to the student for laboratory work. Among those lately made are a complete photographic outfit of the best make, a Colt double stereopticon with accessories, and a wireless telegraphy outfit.

The following courses are offered:

I. Non-Metallic Chemistry---General Chemistry, fundamental ideas and laws.

Prerequisite---Preparatory course completed. Fall Term.

II. Metallic Chemistry---Study of the metals, qualitative analysis begun in the laboratory.

Prerequisite---Course I. Winter Term.

III. Qualitative Analysis---Identification and separation of common elements and acids in ununknown solutions.

Prerequisite---Course II. Spring Term.

IV. Quantitative Analysis---Gravimetric and volumetric determinations, special examples, as analysis of gas, water, alloys, minerals, etc.

Prerequisite---Course III. Fall Term.

V. Organic Chemistry---Remsen's Organic Chemistry, lectures on industrial applications of organic chemistry.

Prerequisite---Course III. Fall Term.

Courses IV and V are offered in alternate years, course IV being given in 1900.

VI. Physics---Mechanics, Sound, Heat.

Prerequisite---Trigonometry. Winter Term.

VII. Physics---Light, Electricity.

Prerequisite---Course VI. Spring Term.

STUDIES OF THE LITERARY COURSE.

The following is the outline of the studies of the Literary Course, which does not admit of elections or substitutions. The degree of Bachelor of Literature will be conferred on those completing this course. The figures indicate the weeks of study:

Department of	Philosophy and Revelation	40
"	" English	80
"	" Latin	20
"	" Mathematics	50
"	" History and Sociology	45
"	" German	35
"	" Biology	15
"	" Physical Science	20
"	" Elocution	10

These studies are pursued in the following order. The figures refer to the courses as given in the outline of the work of the departments:

Biology, I.	German, I.	Bible, I.
English, I.	English, IV.	Philosophy, III.
Mathematics, I.	Mathematics, III.	Political Econ., III.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

Careful preparation, under competent instructors, is necessary for the work in higher classes. To furnish this in the best manner, Monmouth College maintains a well-equipped Preparatory Department.

The special object of this department is to prepare students thoroughly for entering the College. The courses are arranged with reference to the various departments in the College courses and the studies pursued have direct bearing upon the work which follows. Thus time is economized and the preparation unified.

Parents can send their sons and daughters here with the perfect assurance that they will be cared for and trained in the essential branches which will prepare them for the College work.

CONTROL.

The department is under the general superintendance of the President and Faculty, and the special supervision of the Vice President. The instruction is in charge of the Professors at the head of the various departments in the College. The instructors in the Preparatory Department are all College graduates and teachers of experience.

ADVANTAGES.

All the advantages in the way of Libraries, Literary Societies, Laboratories, Lectures, Christian Union and other features of the College are open to the pupils of this department.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The following Groups of Study are offered:

The letters in the table indicate which courses are required, and the figures indicate the number of weeks required in each department,

GROUP A.		GROUP B.
Latin A-I	105	Latin, A-I	105
English, A-D	50	English, A-D	50
History and Civics, A-C.	35	History and Civics, A-D.	45
Mathematics, A-H	90	Mathematics, A-H	90
Physical Science, B, C..	20	Physical Science, A-C...	35
Biological Science, A....	15	Biological Science, A-B.	25
Greek, A-C	35

Group A prepares students for Groups I, II, III, IV, VII and VIII of the College work.

Group B prepares students for Groups III, IV, V, VI and VIII of the College work.

OUTLINE OF WORK IN THE PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

LATIN.

General Statement---The Roman pronunciation is used throughout the course. Five recitations per week are required. Applicants for advanced standing in the Latin Department will be tested to determine their knowledge of the language. Ability to use, and not quantity alone, will fix the standing given the pupil. Quality of the work done and quantity of Latin read, will be carefully inquired from each applicant, with the object in view that we may know how much he knows and what he can do with his knowledge.

The following courses are offered:

A. Elementary Latin---Pronunciation, Inflection, Vocabulary, Latin Order, Expressing Latin in good English and English in good Latin, Syntax. Fall Term.

B. Course A continued. Winter Term.

C. Latin Reader---Inflections, Latin Prose, Sight Reading, Translation at Hearing.

Prerequisite---Course B. Spring Term.

D. Cæsar---Composition, Syntax, Pronunciation, Reading Text, Special Topic Study.

Prerequisite---Course C. Fall Term.

E. Course D Continued. Winter Term.

F. Sallust's Catiline---Sight Reading, Critical Study, Translation at Hearing.

Prerequisite---Course E and Roman History. Spring Term.

G. Cicero --- Orations Against Catiline. Course in Latin Prose based on text, Reviews of Inflections and Syntax.

Prerequisite---Course F. Fall Term.

H. Virgil---Quantity, Dactylic Verse, Scansion, Figures of Speech, Mythological References. Rapid Reading.

Prerequisite---Course G. Winter Term.

I. Course H Continued. Spring Term.

GREEK.

One year of Greek is offered in the Preparatory Department. White's First Greek Book and the Anabasis are used, special attention being given to forms, grammatical structure and the acquirement of a vocabulary. The courses offered are:

A. First Greek Book—Prerequisite, one year of Latin. Fall Term.

B. Continuation of Course A. Winter Term.

C. Anabasis. Spring Term.

Prerequisite—Course B.

MATHEMATICS.

To provide ample facilities for preparatory students to do the work in Mathematics necessary for entrance into the collegiate department courses are offered in Arithmetic, Algebra and Plane Geometry, as follows:

A. Advanced Arithmetic—Review of Fundamental Processes, Short Methods of Multiplication and Division, Literal Notations used in the extraction of roots, Metric Measures, Mensuration, Proportion, Percentage and its Different Applications.

Beman and Smith's Higher Arithmetic used. Winter Term.

B. Advanced Arithmetic—Continuation of Course A. Spring Term.

C. Algebra—Fundamental Operations, Factoring, Fractions, Simple and Quadratic Equations of one or more unknown quantities. Radicals, Fractional and Negative Exponents. Solution of problems and proofs accompany the entire study.

Based on Wentworth's New School Algebra. Fall Term.

D. Algebra — Continuation of Course C. Winter Term.

E. Algebra — Continuation of Course D. Spring Term.

F. Plane Geometry — Beman and Smith's Plane Geometry.

Prerequisite — Elementary Algebra. Fall Term.

G. Plane Geometry—Continuation of Course F. Winter Term.

H. Advanced Algebra—Special work with Quadratic Equation, the Binomial Theorem, Development of Logarithms, etc.

Prerequisite—Course E. Spring Term.

ENGLISH.

English Grammar will be required for admission to the Preparatory Department; but, during the Fall term, arrangements will be made for review by any one who may not be able to pass examinations.

Elementary Rhetoric will be studied throughout the entire year. This includes punctuation, the discrimination of figures and studies in etymology. In connection with this, also, will be the study of the lives of leading American authors, and of selections from their works.

The following courses are offered:

A. English Grammar—Review. Fall Term.

B. Elementary Rhetoric.

Prerequisite---Course A. Fall Term

C. Elementary Rhetoric—Continuation of Course B. Winter Term.

D. Elementary Rhetoric---Continuation of Course C. Spring Term.

HISTORY AND CIVICS.

The following courses are offered:

A. Civil Government — Fisk's Text-book. Attention given to origin and growth of township, city, state and federal governments. Foundation is laid for more advanced work.

Prerequisite --- United States History. Fall Term.

B. Ancient Oriental and Grecian History.

Prerequisite---United States History. Fall Term.

C. Roman History.

Prerequisite---United States History. Winter Term.

D. English History.

Prerequisite --- United States, Roman and Grecian History. Spring Term.

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCE.

Physiology.---The instruction in this subject is arranged to give training and mental discipline as well as useful information. The work is made thoroughly practical. The human skeleton is studied in the laboratory. Other laboratory work is given. The student learns to see with his own eyes—to gain some knowledge that is not second-hand. Hygiene is viewed not as a mass of rules, but as logical deduction from natural laws. Martin's Human Body (briefer course) is the text book.

Elementary Botany—This is intended as an introduction to the scientific study of plant life. Emphasis is laid upon the elementary facts of structure and life, but some attention is given to principles of classification and the identification of plants by means of a manual. Bergen's text-book is used. This course is a prerequisite to the College Botany.

The following courses are offered:

A. Physiology—Martin's Human Body. Fall Term.

B. Elementary Botany—Prerequisite, course A. Spring Term.

PHYSICAL SCIENCE.

A course of one year is given in Physical Geography and Elementary Physics as an introduction to the study of the Physical Sciences. Three hours of recitation and four hours of laboratory work per week are required.

The student has the advantage of the same laboratory apparatus as in the College Department.

The following courses are offered:

A. Physical Geography—Prerequisite, Elementary Algebra. Fall Term.

B. Elementary Physics—Mechanics, Heat. Prerequisite—Elementary Algebra. Winter Term.

C. Elementary Physics—Electricity, Sound, Light.

Prerequisite—Course B. Spring Term.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC.

DR. J. B. HERBERT, DIRECTOR.

MRS. W. H. SEXTON, PROFESSOR.

"Music is like a discipline—it makes men sweeter, more virtuous and wise."—Martin Luther.

"The benefit which I wish my pupils to derive from tuition is threefold—to heart, ear and hands; they are as it were the root, blossom and fruit of tuition."—Schumann.

"Music is the first, the simplest, the most effective of all instruments of moral instruction."—Ruskin.

"We cannot imagine a complete education of man without music. It is necessary to keep body and soul in health."—Jean Paul Richter.

Music is one of the greatest educators, and, studied in its various departments, develops the mind as much as the classics or mathematics. We advise its study, not only as as accomplishment, but as a part of a complete education. It can be taken as a separate branch or carried with other work. It is offered as an elective, and credits are given in the advanced grades.

Chorus and Sight Reading Classes are maintained. Recitals are given, and usually a concert at Commencement time.

Dr. J. B. Herbert, author of "Harmony and Composition," Male Quartette books, "Anthems from the Psalms," Organ Voluntaries, etc., will give lessons on the Pipe Organ, in Voice Culture, and in Theory and Harmony. Mrs. Sexton will give instruction in Piano and Musical History.

PIANO-FORTE COURSE.

Preparatory--Rudimentary instruction, Scales, Arpeggios, Dominants; Kohler, Matthews and Heller Studies. Sonatinas and pieces for development of technic, expression and musical taste.

Intermediate---Scales, Arpeggios, etc., continued. Stamaty, Mason and other exercises, Czerney Op. 299, Heller's Op. 45, easier sonatas and selections from modern composers.

Advanced---Selected technic studies from Matthews, Cramer, Czerney. Bach's Inventions, Selections from Beethoven, Mozart, Mendelssohn, Chopin and best modern composers.

VOCAL COURSE.

The length of this course corresponds in a general way to the one given for the piano. Students are taught the correct management of the breath, tone placing, sustained tones and agility and flexibility of the voice. Root's Voice Culture will be used, supplemented by Concone, Abt, etc. Exercises and pieces are given according to individual needs.

PIPE ORGAN.

Pipe Organ lessons will include not only suitable organ studies, together with registration, transposition, etc., but also the practical use of the instrument in the playing of Psalm tunes, overtures and voluntaries.

HARMONY AND COMPOSITION.

As a text-book "Herbert's Harmony and Composition," will be used. Other works such as Dr.

Palmer's "Theory of Music," Oakey's Harmony and Counterpoint will also be included in the course.

Instruction on the Cabinet Organ with special reference to its use in the church services and for choral singing at the same price as piano lessons. Instructions on the Violin, Guitar, Banjo and Mandolin given by competent instructors and at reasonable rates.

RATES OF TUITION.

FALL SESSION—FIFTEEN WEEKS.

PIANO AND VOICE—

Two lessons per week of 45 minutes each	$25.00
One lesson per week	13.00

PIANO—Preparatory Department—

Two lessons each week of 30 minutes	15.00
One lesson per week	8.00

PIPE ORGAN AND HARMONY—

One hour lessons each	1.00

HARMONY—

In classes of two or more, one lesson each week, per term	11.00

WINTER AND SPRING SESSIONS—TEN WEEKS EACH.

PIANO AND VOICE—

Two lessons per week, each 45 minutes	$16.50
One lesson per week	8.50

PIANO—Preparatory Department—

Two lessons per week, 30 minutes	10.00
One lesson per week	5.50

PIPE ORGAN AND HARMONY—

Hour lessons, each	1.00

HARMONY—

In classes of two or more, one lesson each week per term	7.50

History of Music and Sight Reading classes are free to all music students. Matthews' History of Music isused as a text book.

MUSIC ELECTIVES.

One year's study of music, two lessons each week, will be received as a credit of 35 weeks, to be applied on the electives of any group of college studies.

The following courses are open for this purpose:

I. Harmony and Composition—Open to advanced students.

II. Piano. Third year. Intermediate grade.

Prerequisite—Preparatory grade or two years' study.

III. Voice—Second year.

Prerequisite—One year's study.

Credit on electives will not be given for music taken elsewhere. In order to obtain credit on music as an elective, the student must have passing records entered on the books not only of the work on which credits are desired, but also of the work prerequisite to this.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Students may enter at any time, but are not enrolled for less than one term.

In order to secure a diploma the student must have finished the prescribed work, including Harmony and History, and must have spent at least one year in this institution.

The privileges of the Musical Department are not extended on the same grounds to holders of scholarships and half-rate tuitions, as are the privileges of the other departments of the College.

Students attending College and desiring to take musical instruction are expected to take lessons in this department. No credit will be given for lessons taken elsewhere.

Pupils should report to the President of the College, with whom they will make all their arrangements for entrance.

Pianos and organs can be rented at reasonable rates.

About one hundred volumes of the best musical literature, including histories, biographies, etc., are in the Warren County Library. The reading room is free to all students.

ART DEPARTMENT.

MISS CLINNIE HALLAM, INSTRUCTOR.
MISS JESSIE BUCKNER, INSTRUCTOR.

Miss Hallam, who is the Instructor in Crayon, is a graduate of the Illinois Wesleyan University. Her method of instruction is new, but it has been found most satisfactory both to pupil and teacher. She has made a practical division of the work into grades, so that after proper preparation the pupil is carrried from simple landscapes to the portrait work. The first year's work includes seven grades in which the pupil is instructed in landscapes, marines, animals, ideal heads, and figure pieces. In the second year the student is ready for advanced crayon, sepia, and portrait work.

The Department offers a thorough course in drawing charcoal and pencil drawing from objects, casts, models, and life. Oil, china, and water color painting, including landscapes, figures, flowers, animals, and still life, are taught.

The studio is supplied with studies, the use of which is allowed to pupils without charge. The Department also possesses a good kiln for firing china.

OLD STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION.

The Old Students' Association of Monmouth College was organized June 3, 1897, and is composed of the men and women who attended the College, but who were unable to pursue their studies to graduation.

The College and its friends are proud of the one thousand and more Alumni of this institution, yet it should not be forgotten that probably ten times that number who failed to complete their course are as truly sons and daughters of Monmouth College as are the others. In their different spheres and avocations in life, they are performing their parts with fidelity and success, and largely so because of their training in Monmouth College.

These old students wished to renew and retain their connection with the College, and for this reason the Association was formed, with the hearty approval and co-operation of the Faculty. There is no membership fee, but all former students of the College are members. The Secretary, whose name is given below, would be pleased to receive the names and present address of every old student, with the years of attendance in college for enrollment in the list of members.

President—Hugh R. Moffet, Monmouth.
First Vice President—Miss Maggie L. Wiley, Monmouth.
Second Vice President—Mrs. Lizzie Cameron Whiteman—Biggsville.
Third Vice President—Mrs. Rachel Plummer Martin, Tarkio, Mo.
Secretary—Dudley W. Birdsall, Monmouth.
Treasurer—Miss Carrie Musgove, Monmouth.

FORMS OF BEQUEST.

I give and devise to the Trustees of the Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois, the sum of $.....or the following property, viz: (specify the same) for the use and purposes for which said Trustees are authorized by law to take and hold property; and I authorize my executor to pay the same to the order, in writing, of the said Trustees.

I give, devise and bequeath to the Trustees of the Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois, the sum of $ .....to be devoted by them to (here specify purpose) and do authorize my executor to pay the same to them, or their authorized agent, upon demand.

Special care should be taken that bequests be made according to the laws of the State governing them.

Some prefer to deed their property to the College and receive an annuity from the College during the remainder of their lives. This relieves them from the care of the property, insures them an income as long as they live, and assures them that their money will be a blessing after they are gone.
